Certified Professional Career Coach and Official Member of the Forbes Coaches Council, Dr. Garrison Leykam doesn't just believe that everyone is capable of creating their own second act careers...this AARP card-carrying motorcyclist and "career chameleon" has proved it himself many times over.

Leykam has been a record producer for industry giant London Records, been president of his own record label and performed as a singer-songwriter at Nashville's iconic Bluebird Café and CBGBs (the Bowery's birthplace of punk). He's held senior leadership positions at companies such as MCI Telecommunications and Grand Circle Travel. Leykam is a published author of several books, including DESIGN YOU. He's been a news-talk radio show host on WSTC/WNLK and a stand-up comic whose appearance at NYC's legendary Gotham Comedy Club was the premise for the television documentary "Comic on a Half Shell." Leykam produced and hosted the motorcycle odyssey "DINERS" for Connecticut Public Television (CPTV) and has been featured in the American Motorcycle Association's exhibit and book, "MotoStars: Celebrities + Motorcycles" with Brad Pitt, Carlos Mencia, Keith Urban, Peter Fonda and other celebrities and bands including Journey, Rush and Foreigner.
